

Today Congressman Pence congratulated Garrison Elementary School teacher and academic coach Aubrey Wildey. Wildey was recently awarded the Dick Ramey Above and Beyond Award by the Indiana Association of School Principals

. Congressman Pence's letter follows:

October 21, 2010

Dear Aubrey Wildey,

It is my honor and privilege to congratulate you on receiving the Dick Ramey Above and Beyond Award. This honor is a testament to the commitment and dedication you have shown to students and their families. Congratulations on being the first ever elementary school teacher to receive this award.

I admire your enthusiasm for implementing extracurricular programs that advocate academics such as Math and Spell Bowl. I am appreciative of all that you have done for your students. You are an inspiration to your peers all over the great state of Indiana, especially those in your community.

Best wishes as you continue your service to the Richmond Community Schools. I look forward to hearing of your future success.

Sincerely,
Mike Pence
